FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN

On Easter Sunday, 1828, this congregation was formed. July 16, 1866, the corner stone for the present church was laid. Its spire reaches 140-feet high and can be seen great distances from this city, named in honor of the famed Shawnee Indian Chief.

Pub. by Tom Riordan Photography, 510 Nokomis St., Tecumseh, Michigan 49286

2.50

PLACE STAMP HERE

Post Card

10699-C

dp MADE BY DEXTER PRESS, INC. WEST NYACK, NEW YORK